BNAACC Mission Statement

The Bruce D. Nesbitt African American Cultural Center mission is to support the social, cultural, and academic well-being of Black students and Black heritage at Illinois.

We welcome students to campus annually through the Circuit-Pre-Orientation Program. The Circuit is a free, early move-in experience for incoming Black students (both first-year and transfer). This program curates a safe and welcoming environment where our new students (you!) meet new friends, learn how to succeed at Illinois, and become a part of our wonderful community.

The fun does not stop there! During Welcome Week, BNAACC’s 100 STRONG program hosts Wake Up Call! This high energy, performance and resource sharing event is designed by students for students! This official welcome to all Black students is crafted by the 100 STRONG executive board. At Wake Up Call, you will be exposed to various students and Black greek-lettered organizations, learn more about the history of activism, and the values of 100 STRONG! Students leave this program with a commitment to excellence through community connections.

Wondering what this infamous 100 Strong Program is? Well, it is a program that will help students develop a network of sustainable connections across the campus rooted in BNAACC’s rich, culturally responsive support. 100 STRONG cultivates leaders by offering a peer mentorship program, skill development and experiential learning opportunities for new students! The goal of the program is to ensure 100% of students persist and graduate!

During your first week of classes, we host the Welcome Black BBQ to begin fostering a community of care and inclusivity! At the BBQ, you will meet the BNAACC professional staff, student employees and a wide array of your peers and Black faculty and staff all committed to your success!

Throughout the academic year, we offer numerous opportunities to be involved with the center through committees, outreach opportunities, educational exploration programs, and community-building events from yoga to book chats to cooking classes. Every Wednesday, we host a lunch and learn called Food for the Soul, where we share a delicious meal together and explore topics and histories impacting communities across the African diaspora. Bi-weekly, on Thursdays, you can connect with your 100 STRONG peer mentors and other mentor groups to discuss trending topics, check-in with one another, and learn tips and tricks to finding success on campus! Finally, you can join our Shelley Ambassador Program to connect with prospective students and their families by sharing your story in hopes that it helps them also choose Illinois as their collegiate home in the future!

At BNAACC, we go BIG! One of our signature programs includes the Black & Latinx Summit – a conference led by students in La Casa Cultural Latina and the BNAACC to promote solidarity. You can be a part of this planning committee right away as a new student on campus by contacting us! Another signature program is our Black Congratulatory Ceremony where we celebrate our Black graduating students in style with various cultural traditions.

Ensuring that you thrive at Illinois is our top priority, so we partner with our friends across campus to provide many resources right here in the BNAACC! We partner with the Office of Minority Student Affairs (OMSA) to provide academic coaching; the Counseling Center’s Black student outreach team, Sankofa, for mental health resources; the McKinley Health Center for physical health resources; the Women’s Resources Center to provide confidential advising for people who have experienced sexual or domestic violence or who are interested in learning how to navigate relationships; the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to provide undocumented and DACA-mented mentors; and the Libraries to help you learn how to use research tools!

We are so excited to welcome you to the BNAACC fam-ILL-y!

Collectivity: because everything worthwhile is done with others.

Fraternity & Sorority Affairs

150 years ago, fraternities and sororities were founded at Illinois.

These groups started as literary societies and have continued today to provide support, housing, career development, mentorship, and coaching to over 6,100 students who claim membership in one of the (90+) chapters on campus. Over the long history of fraternal life at Illinois, one central element is key: friendship. Students have sought membership in our fraternity and sororities not only for the many co-curricular experiences or opportunities for career planning, but for the life-long friendships that are formed through membership.

“People join people.”

Frequently asked questions

What makes joining a fraternity or sorority different than another Registered Student Organization? (RSO)?
While similar to a general student organization, there are two aspects which make fraternal organizations unique—they are values-based and your membership is for life!

When can I join?
Eligibility to join a fraternity or sorority is dependent on the individual organization. Many organizations allow first-semester freshmen to join, while some organizations require students to have completed a particular number of credit hours.

How do I find the organization that’s right for me?
As a young adult, selecting which organization you would like to join as a lifelong member can seem overwhelming. However, through intentional interactions, finding the right fit is simply a matter of knowing what feels right. With many options to select from with different letters, colors, mascots and mottos, the best decision to join can be found in finding a group of people who you know will be a great fit for you.

How do I join?

• Informal recruitment/intake: The majority of fraternities and sororities at Illinois engage in informal recruitment or intake throughout the year. This method of recruitment can occur during the fall semester, spring semester, summer, or an ongoing basis throughout the year. Regardless of the recruitment type, the most important thing you can do as a prospective member is to meet as many of the members as possible and begin getting to know them.

• Primary recruitment: A select number of our organizations collaborate and host primary recruitment once a year on campus. These organizations, primarily known by their national affiliation with the National Panhellenic Conference or NPC, consist of women’s fraternities and sororities. Primary Recruitment is coordinated by the Panhellenic Council and is held at the start of every fall semester. Women seeking to join one of the 19 Panhellenic organizations are encouraged to register for primary recruitment.

How can I meet the chapters?
Many of our chapters, both fraternities and sororities will be at Quad Day 2022 on Sunday, August 21. You will have the opportunity to meet members of the community and ask questions to learn more about our chapters.

90+ active chapters on campus with over 6,000 members
30+ culturally based groups
18% of the undergraduate population are fraternity and sorority members
61% of members hold a GPA of 3.5 or higher

The values and roles that guide the GSRC’s mission, purpose and programming include Education, Support and Referral services.

Educational Role
The GSRC collaborates with other cultural/resource centers, registered student organizations (RSO), Urbana-Champaign agencies and University Illinois schools to develop programs, workshops, research, and training to advance campus awareness about LGBTQIA+, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming concerns; as well as provide workshops and research that centers on advancing the education, community knowledge, and self-discovery of our LGBTQIA+ community.

Support Services
The Gender and Sexuality Resource Center provides a supportive space for LGBTQIA+, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming students, faculty, and staff to discuss the campus climate, as well as works with campus units and academic departments to increase awareness and affirmation of LGBTQIA+, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming people to reduce discrimination and harassment based on gender identity/expression and sexual orientation in the UIUC community.

The Referral Role
The center helps LGBTQIA+, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming students, staff, and faculty identify existing resources, allies, and services within the UIUC community that assist in addressing issues, problems, and concerns. The GSRC refers LGBTQIA+, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming individuals to appropriate confidential campus and community reporting and support services. Office of Civic Life

The Office of Civic Life guides students into active citizenship and celebrate the pathways they choose in making a positive impact towards social change.

We define what it means to be an Illini by integrating students into the fabric of the Champaign-Urbana community and challenging them to address complex societal issues and sustained community activism.

Service Based Organizations
OCL supports and advise service-based organizations, including Volunteer Illini Project (VIP). VIP is a student-run, student-staffed volunteer organization committed to peace, unity, and change. By working with and within the community, VIP makes a positive impact through service, thereby enriching students’ educational experiences and committing students to a lifetime of volunteerism.

OCL hosts several programs throughout the year that supports active citizenship.

Change Maker-Expo
Civic life invites Champaign-Urbana community partners to showcase the many opportunities that Illini can volunteer during their time at the university.

Legacy of Service and Learning Scholarship
Initiated by the Illinois student body, scholars are eligible for an annual award as part of their participation in a service-learning program. Cohorts focus on various aspects of community engagement that leads to sustained volunteerism in the Champaign-Urbana community.

Service Saturdays
Coordinated throughout the academic year, students have the opportunity to learn about the various community partners through direct hands-on engagement for the day.

Community Engagement Day
Brings together different facets of “community” that aid volunteers in the exploration of community needs and issues in C-U, create pathways to and interest in sustainable and responsible volunteerism, and encourage community involvement year-round.

Thanksgiving Meal Drive
Civic Life partners with campus departments at Illinois to support the Big Give at Stone Creek Church. This drive begins in October and runs through mid-November. Campus typically collects more than $5,000 in monetary gifts and 1,700 pounds of food.

Holiday Toy Drive
Civic Life partners with students, student orgs, and campus departments to collect toys for the Cunningham Children’s Home. The drive starts mid-November and runs through first week of December.

Make plans to participate by viewing our events calendar, and sign up for OCL NEWS to receive the latest details on these engagement opportunities.

Student Democratic Engagement
An engaged Illini is one who participates in a comprehensive experience that challenges them to participate and through that participation provide a service or benefit that meets the needs of our community. Civic education is a combination of promoting the education of students for engaged participation through democratic participation in their communities, respect and appreciation of diversity, applied learning, and social responsibility.

At Illinois we are committed to working to reduce apathy, increase engagement, and graduate civic-minded students prepared to solve the country, and the world’s, most pressing challenges. With this in mind, we offer students many opportunities to become engaged citizens through our student voter initiatives.

At Illinois, our goal is to normalize voting behavior through initial opportunities that allow all students to register, learn about issues and candidate, and vote. Democracy relies on each of you to help shape our Illini community and your communities at home. Voting is just one way that each of you can participate in civic engagement that is part of our collective responsibility as citizens. As you get to learn more about Illinois, we encourage you to learn more about democratic engagement at civiclife.illinois.edu/illinivote/ or on Instagram @illinivote.

Student who are US citizens can register to vote at illinois.turbovote.org.

The Student Assistance Center in the Office of the Dean of Students is a collaborative resource that promotes the holistic growth and development of Illinois students. To that end, we partner with students, faculty, staff, and family members to address disruptions to students’ academic and social stability or behaviors that cause distress in our community. We strive to foster a community of care in which all members have a personal responsibility to themselves and others.

Our team is ready to provide support or assistance! Whether you are experiencing academic difficulty due to health issues, extenuating circumstances that are impacting your ability to be successful, need help finding or getting connected to campus resources, or are seeking information about university policies and procedures, we are here to help. Other ways our team assists students include:
• Medical withdrawals
• Absence-related documentation for class
• Absences due to religious observance
• Food and housing insecurity and related issues

We strongly encourage students to call and make an appointment. Appointments are available Monday-Friday from 9:00 am-4:30 pm and are typically 30 minutes.

Although appointments are recommended, the Student Assistance Center offers drop-in hours from 10:00 am-3:00 pm, Monday-Friday. During this time, students can meet with a Dean to begin a conversation about a presenting issue/concern. Drop-in appointments are usually relatively short and are intended for addressing specific questions. Following this initial meeting, the Dean may suggest a follow-up appointment for further discussion/assistance.

Salaam
Middle East & North Africa Cultural Center

Come visit UIUC’s newest cultural center and Urbana’s best-kept secret! One of the main features of the UIUC Salaam Middle East & North Africa (MENA) Cultural Center is its inviting, hospitable, and relaxing cafe-like qahwah (coffee) house and chai (tea) khoone atmosphere.

Open to students, staff, and visitors of all backgrounds, our center is the perfect place to study, hang out, meet new people, hold a meeting, host events, play cards, dabble in board games, play FIFA 2023, etc. over a cup of coffee or tea from across the MENA region. The center comfortably accommodates thirty people and comes equipped with round and rectangular chafing dishes, a large charcuterie board, diverse seating arrangements, and an open area for mingling. We are located at 706 East Gregory Street, between Cafe Bene and Tenko Tea; right across from Basil-Thai@Urbana, and Rosati’s Pizza; and around the corner from Dubai Grill and Ko-Fusion. The center is also home to the best hot sauce collection in the entire county, a perfect pairing with a slice or empanada from Manolo’s, a short hop, skip, and jump away.

About Us
The UIUC Salaam Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Cultural Center provides a safe space for historically marginalized, misrepresented, and underrepresented culturally related communities across North Africa, the Sub-Saharan African Sahel, East Africa, Southwest Asia, West Asia, Central Asia, the Mediterranean, Eastern Europe, the Caucasus, and their diasporas. Through the keen lenses of criticality, intersectionality, interculturality, and paradigm proliferation, the center seeks to provide a home and an in-depth understanding of the loosely defined colonial terms “Middle East and North Africa” and its peoples. This includes MENA’s encounter with “race” in the West as well as colonialism, post-colonialism, and self-colonization in the region.

The aim is that by deconstructing exclusionary narratives and enriching them with counternarratives, we will jointly reconstruct inclusive narratives that allow for time and spaces of belonging for all who have called, do call, or will call the region home. Our goal is to establish the Salaam MENA Cultural Center as the pinnacle of student success and a home away from home for all.

Student Engagement

Student Engagement is your gateway to an incredible Illini experience where you can immerse yourself through infinite possibilities.

Student Organizations
New students are encouraged to explore ways to get involved, including joining a student organization. Students who were members of a student org reported having a higher sense of belonging and being more connected to campus. Student Organization Development & Administration (SODA), a unit of Student Engagement, has a dedicated team that provides student organizations support through education and leadership development. In addition, serving as a member of a student org offers opportunities for personal growth and the development of critical skills outside of the classroom, which prepares students for success after college.

Quad Day
Quad Day, a tradition at Illinois, is the ultimate way to explore our student orgs. Hosted on Sunday before the fall semester, join us at the Main and South Quads as we kick off the semester.

Student Sustainability
Another great way to get involved is with Student Sustainability. Student Sustainability works throughout campus to develop and support green initiatives. In addition, this unit plays host to the Student Sustainability Committee, which allocates funds received via the Cleaner Energy Technologies Fee and the Sustainable Campus Environment Fee to campus programs and projects that aim to improve sustainability at Illinois.

Confidential Advisors provide a variety of support and advocacy services for a variety of needs, including:

FYCARE
Web:  go.illinois.edu/fycare
Email:  fycare@illinois.edu

The FYCARE workshop is a required program for all incoming students, including first-year students, transfers, and international students. FYCARE is a peer-led, interactive discussion on sexual misconduct that strives to build awareness and improve our capacity to create healthier relationships. Workshops are led by trained peer facilitators and designed to encourage engaging discussion in a relaxed atmosphere. Peer facilitators draw upon their own experiences as students at Illinois to keep the workshop informative and relatable.

FYCARE discusses the dynamics of sexual violence and relationship violence, consent, bystander intervention, ways to support survivors, and campus and community resources.

In an effort to create and maintain a safe campus community, the University of Illinois has mandated that all students attend a FYCARE workshop during their first semester on campus. Evaluations show that the vast majority of past attendees found the workshops beneficial to their overall transition to the campus.

You will receive an email from New Student Programs with the link to register or reschedule if needed. There will be a limited number of FYCARE workshops offered virtually over the summer, with the majority of workshops taking place in the fall semester.
